

FOR IMMEDIATE RELEASE:

NCTC BEGINS SEARCH FOR 2018 ARBOR DAY HONOREE

(Nebraska City, NE – February 7, 2018) – Nebraska City Tourism & Commerce, Inc., is currently seeking nominations for the 2018 Arbor Day Honoree and Tree Planter of the Year. The deadline for nominations is Friday, March 30.

The Arbor Day Honoree Award is given to an individual or group who has contributed their time and talents in making Nebraska City a better place to live. They exemplify the spirit of J. Sterling Morton and his family with their generosity, vision, compassion, and courage. Past winners have included those who serve Nebraska City through their workplace or their position, through volunteerism, or through social activism.

The Tree Planter of the Year is given to an individual or group who promotes tree planting, conservation, and care in the Nebraska City area.

The Arbor Day Honoree and Tree Planter will be recognized at a commemorative tree planting and reception on Friday, April 27, and during the 2018 Arbor Day Parade on Saturday, April 28.

Nominations must be submitted in writing and include the name and contact information of the nominee, as well as a short essay highlighting the nominee's qualifications. Please submit to NCTC, 806 1st Avenue, Nebraska City, NE 68410, or by emailing tpartsch@nebraskacity.com

The mission of Nebraska City Tourism & Commerce is to create a prosperous, vibrant community. We strive to unite residents to promote tourism, strengthen commerce, and improve the welfare of the community to benefit the quality of life in historic Nebraska City.

Contact:

Amy Allgood, NCTC Executive Director
806 1st Avenue
Nebraska City, NE 68410
402-873-6654
AmyA@NebraskaCity.com

Tammy Partsch, NCTC Marketing
806 1st Avenue
Nebraska City, NE 68410
402-873-6654
TPartsch@NebraskaCity.com

###